

United States Cutting Horse Association

Judges Application

2024

STEP 1.

All USCHA Judge Applicants Must Meet The Following Criteria:

- 1. Applicant must be a member of the USCHA in good standings and may not be suspended or denied privileges from any other cutting horse association.
- 2. May apply prior to 21st birthday. Must be 21 years of age to judge a USCHA sanctioned contest.
- 3. Judges not carded at date of application in NCHA or AQHA must pay $100 application fee. Fee is due with application. (This is a onetime application fee.) NRCHA carded judges will be approved with no fee for ranch cutting only.
- 4. Must pass written test and return with application. Written test is attached. Rulebook available online @ www.unitedstatescutting.com

STEP 2.

After meeting the above criteria, completing judge's application/test and returning it to USCHA office, the USCHA judge's committee members will review the prospective new judge's application. A member of the judges committee will then contact applicant. The judges committee will determine if it is to be required that the applicant proceed with the process of apprentice judging in "second stand" up to two full USCHA cutting events at applicant's expense.

STEP 3.

USCHA Judges Committee members will review all of the applicants Apprentice Judge Score Cards and Videos and then in a timely manner notify applicant of the Committees decision to grant or not to grant full judging privileges to applicant.
