

Opportunity knocks! Want to have a fun cutting?

Cutting and ranch cutting show producers the 2021 show season is just around the corner.

This year when planning your events consider sanctioning events with the United States Cutting Horse Association. USCHA offers a great product in the industry today. Highlights:

- No annual association membership fees for owners and riders. • No percentage of any kind charged and or paid to the association from shows. (0-3 % may be retained by the show producer). Better payouts for contestants.
- No dues of any kind paid to association and no bonds required. • No show application fees.
- 200 mile radius between approved shows. • USCHA provides great rules and regulations.
- USCHA provides accurate record keeping in house. USCHA tracks all horse and rider earnings and other pertinent statistics and data. This information is available to all members via association website 24/7 365.
- USCHA reports to Equistat.
- USCHA advertises all USCHA sanctioned events via website, social media and printed materials/publications.
- USCHA has 10 updated regions. All active regions will have USCHA supported annual USCHA Regional Weekend events. To be held during the months of May and or June. USCHA will secure sponsors to provide additional added monies and awards for these events. These events are to be hosted by interested show producers in each region and will be a shared opportunity in a rotational manner.
- USCHA will host an annual National Finals event and track standings in 19 sanctioned class categories. Additionally, USCHA has recognized national award categories such as Rookie of The Year, Horse of The Year, Non Pro Rider of The Year and Owner of The Year.
- USCHA makes available to all members qualifying via USCHA sanctioned shows the USCHA Weekend Cutter Incentive Program. • USCHA has a Hall of Fame Program • USCHA has a Scholarship Program
- Shows can be produced by using software created for USCHA sanctioned events or shows may be run manually.
- USCHA membership is growing nationally.
- The USCHA product has much needed flexibility created by cutting horse event producers for cutting horse event producers. • 2021 show applications are online at www.UnitedStatesCutting.com or additional information or questions call the USCHA office at 903-440-4122
